

Pinning Ceremony 2009

FAQs:

1. What is pinning ceremony?

→ This is a time-honored tradition to celebrate the culmination of nursing school.

2. When and where will this take place?

→ The pinning ceremony will be held on May 13, 2009 at Harris Theater in GMU Fairfax. The program will start at 7 pm sharp. No one can get in after 7pm.

3. What will happen on this event?

→ Each student will be pinned by Dr. Remsburg, Dean of the School of Nursing, and the graduating class will recite the Florence Nightingale Pledge together.

4. Can I bring anyone?

→ YES! You can bring as many as you want! You do not have to pay for seats.

5. Do I have to buy the pin?

→ NO

6. Can I still participate without the pin?

→ YES. Your name will be called and you will still come up the stage. The only difference is you will not be pinned.

7. What should I wear?

→ Please dress professionally. It is recommended to wear dark dress pants/skirts, dress shirts, suits and formal shoes. No khakis, jeans, sneakers, hats and t-shirts.

Please RSVP to Grace Linsangan at mlinsan1@gmu.edu or cut off this part and drop it off the SNA office by March 28, 2009.
